

WASTE SEGREGATION SYSTEM

METALS AND PLASTICS

THROW IN HERE:

Plastics: beverage bottles (empty), screw caps, foils, bags, food packaging (e.g. yoghurts), packaging of household chemicals.

Metals: steel and aluminum cans.

Milk and beverage cartons, multi-material packaging.

DO NOT THROW IN HERE:

Waste electronic equipment, packages with the contents of the products hazardous, paints, batteries and batteries, diapers

PAPER

THROW IN HERE:

Paper, cardboard: cardboard, paper, newspapers, magazines, leaflets, catalogues, school papers, office papers

DO NOT THROW IN HERE:

Greasy, dirty, wet paper, hygienic paper (toilet, wipes, cotton swabs)

GLASS

THROW IN HERE:

White and colored glass: hollow glass jars, glass bottles, glass packaging after cosmetics

DO NOT THROW IN HERE:

Porcelain, glasses, glasses, ceramics, mirrors, windows, candles, light bulbs, cups, pots, window glass, spectacle glass

BIO

THROW IN HERE:

Kitchen waste: peelings, eggshells, food debris, fruits, vegetables.

Green waste: grass, small branches, leaves, flowers.

DO NOT THROW IN HERE:

Bones of animals, ash, other waste

Waste remaining after segregation should be disposed of in MIXED (residual) WASTE

Bulky waste, waste electrical and electronic equipment, light bulbs, batteries, accumulators, paint packaging should be returned to the Selective Collection Point Municipal Waste (PSZOK).